SOUTHWEST — Matt Kaminski of Oak Forest is $25.00 richer this week after winning the second week's competition of the continuing Crescent Newspapers' Football Contest.

And Jim Slager of Tinley Park has $10 more for spending money this week and Gerhard Cark of Tinley Park got a fiver for his efforts. The contest is running on Page 16 this week.

A bit of luck and some knowledge of southwest suburban football could put three other armchair quarterbacks in the chips after his weekend.

If you haven't given the weekly football contest a tumble before get out the pencil, check last week's and this week's sports pages of the HERALD for some help and send in your entries . . . not later than Friday.

Vote!

SOUTHWEST — How would you cast your votes, if today were election day? How do you think your neighbors' preferences agree with yours?

It's National 4-H Week

Trade marks of 4-H expand to new fields

WILL COUNTY — 4-H'ers have raised thousands of animals, baked millions of pies and won miles of blue ribbons — enough to make these activities virtual trademarks of 4-H.

And 4-H'ers still raise animals, bake pies and win blue ribbons.

But today, 4-H'ers have hundreds of other interesting and fun things to do. Foods, arts and crafts, small engines, child care, photography, bicycling, automotive care, community development, foreign studies and international exchange programs are just a few of the many activities today's 4-H'ers can choose from.

The expanded roster of 4-H projects and activities reflects the wide interests of today's 4-H'ers.

About one-third of Illinois' 75,000 members live on farms. Another one-third — nearly 28,000 members — live in cities. The remaining one-third live in small towns and villages.

Behind these 4-H'ers more than 14,000 volunteer adult and junior leaders lend their valued assistance. Professional people, farmers, homemakers, businessmen, teachers, older teenagers and retired people all volunteer their knowledge and skills as leaders of local 4-H clubs.

This week Illinois 4-H'ers and leaders join a record five million other 4-H members across the nation in observing National 4-H Week, Oct. 1-7. Their theme is "A New Day — A New Way."

Illinois 4-H'ers are involved in activities that will improve the environment, promote good nutrition and health, strengthen family ties and promote overall community betterment. City and country kids alike are finding new and better ways of doing things, reflecting the "A New Day — A New Way" message.

4-H'ers grow accustomed to public appearances by giving talks and demonstrations, exhibiting projects and appearing on 4-H radio and television programs. They develop poise and confidence.

4-H'ers travel. Trips to 4-H State Week, National Club Congress, National Citizenship Shortcourse, and National 4-H Conference are exciting and educational. 4-H'ers participate in international exchanges such as Teen Caravan and International Farm Youth Exchange.

Learn the why's and how's of the things that interest you. Anyone between the ages of 9 and 19 can join 4-H. Will Countians should contact Dave Mowers at 100 Manhattan Road, Joliet, 60433 — phone (815)-727-1173.

Good Guys on street Friday for the blind

MOKENA — On Lions' Candy Day, Friday, Oct. 6, the "Good Guys" from all over Illinois will be manning street corners and public buildings, giving away candy rolls in exchange for contributions to expand the world of the visually handicapped.

Candy Day contributions support the Hadley School for the Blind; Leader Dogs for the Blind; Dialogue, a Recorded Magazine for the Blind; Illinois Camp Lions for the Visually Handicapped; the Lions Mobile Glaucoma Screening Unit, operated and staffed by the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness; plus a number of community sight conservation and aid to the blind projects.

"Everyone can be a 'Good Guy' on Lions' Day by dropping a contribution into the canisters of the 'Good Guys,'" Lions officials said.

"Remember too," the club reports, "that the first contribution that went into the canister was made by the Lion holding it. Tell him he's a 'Good Guy' and you would like to be one too. The smile you'll get in return will make it worthwhile."

The statewide goal is $850,000, according to the Lions.

Brouwer opens lectures

MOKENA — "America - Of Thee I Sing" will be the initial presentation of the Mokena Lions Club's 1972-73 Travel and Adventure series on Friday evening, Oct. 13.

The movie will be shown at the Lincoln-Way Community High School at 8 o'clock.

The nationally acclaimed movie by Robert Brouwer will be the first of six films presented during the new season. Brouwer has been booked by the Lions Club for the second year at popular request of those who saw and heard his travelogue on Michigan last season.

Five other nationally known adventurers and explorers who are artists in the travelogue field will be presented during the season. They appear on such platforms, including National Geographic in Washington, D.C.; Town Hall in New York; Orchestra Hall, Chicago; and Town Hall in San Francisco.

This seasons tour of countries includes the Canadian Far West, Denmark, Bulgaria, Israel and Timbuktu, Africa. A season ticket for all six travelogues is offered at $7 for adults and $5 for students. Profits from the series will enable the Lions to continue its work on community projects. Tickets are available at Mokena State Bank or from any Lions Club member.

more specifically, problems that likely to arise if preventative measures are not taken soon.

Broucek pointed out that an analysis of the water was made in 1961, with published reports on the water problem at that time. In 1970 the need for improvement was more apparent, thus a commission was created to review the matter completely, with special attention to be given to precise engineering studies.

The commission was formed and supported by seven communities: Joliet, Rockdale, New Lenox, Mokena, Lockport, Bolingbrook and Frankfort. Engineering costs for researching the water problem have been estimated at $900,000.00, which would be shared proportionately by the seven communities involved.

Joliet, the largest of the group, would be forced to underwrite 44.03 per cent of that amount. Joliet City Council recently voted 5-2 not to accept that proposal. (Rockdale also vetoed underwriting its

1.69 per cent or $16,731 share of the engineering costs.)

The City Council of Joliet contends that this money is only a preliminary expenditure; and that the cost of the facility to provide water from the Kankakee River would cost an additional $50,000,000. The council feels that $22,000,000.00 would be a burden on the people of Joliet.

Meanwhile, nothing further can be done with regard to the water problem until the Joliet council changes its position on the matter. Or, as Frankfort Mayor Glenn Warning said, "We can't carry the ball alone." The village board has, however, promised its full support to the commission on its efforts.

While the danger of the city water supply being depleted is not of immediate concern, the board feels it would be wise to study and present to the people a set of alternatives in the event that present plans cannot be realized. The board agreed to meet at 12:30 today to discuss the matter.

Also at the Oct. 2 meeting, bids were opened and considered briefly for the cost of the remodeling work necessary for the village hall. Four bids were received; they were from the Chandler Construction Co., Gillespie Builders, Wayne Johnson Construction and Stagg Custom Contractor.

However, the board did not accept any bid at that time. A motion was carried to review the architecture and work involved, and also to have Trustee Burton Breidert reconsider the bids made. He will present his recommendations at the next meeting of the board.

Other business included acceptance by the board of the resignation of trustee Don Stupp. Citing the desire "to return to school," Stupp, in a letter to the other village officials, asked that his resignation be considered effective Oct. 1, 1972. Stupp was police commissioner when elected to the board in May, 1970.

NEW LENOX — The executors of the Caroline E. Bentley Estate, Ralph W. Agate and Edward W. Batson, met with the administrators of Lincoln-Way High School District and New Lenox Grade School District 122 and made distribution of funds on hand resulting from the sale of properties in the estate.

A check was delivered to Joseph Kruzich on behalf of the Lincoln-Way High School Scholarship Fund in the amount of $251,044.75. Under her will, Miss Bentley created the Caroline Bentley Scholarship Fund which will be used for the benefit of graduates of Lincoln-Way High School who are residents of New Lenox Township.

The income from the fund will provide scholarships for these students based on financial need and scholastic attainments. The fund was directed to be administered by the members of the board of directors of the school district along with Supt. Joseph Kruzich, who is the president of the scholarship fund.

In addition, Miss Bentley authorized the making of loans to needy students from time to time as might be decided by the Scholarship Committee. The executors delivered a check to Arnold Tyler for the treasurer of New Lenox Grade School District in the amount of $188,514.00 which will be deposited in a separate Memorial Fund for the benefit of the New Lenox School District.

Previously, there had been delivered to the school district the sum of $54,677.59, and there also will be a final distribution upon the completion of the sale of the final two parcels of real estate in the approximate amount of $280,000, so that there will be an approximate total of $523,191.59 in the Memorial Fund.

Under her will, Miss Bentley provided that these funds are to be used for building purposes of the New Lenox Grade School District, and the memorial fund is being set up in memory of Miss Caroline E. Bentley, her mother, Mary E. Bentley, her father, James R. Bentley, and her sister, Beulah Bentley.

'Quiet worker' wins OYA honor

ORLAND PARK — Bill Adams has been presented with a long overdue honor. Selected by the Orland Youth Association as its "Man of the Year" Bill was presented a plaque as a token of appreciation for his work in OYA.

"He works quietly. He is a very dedicated person," said OYA secretary Mrs. Thomas Hassel. "I don't think he gets the recognition he deserves."

Adams, who has lived in Orland 21 years with his wife who is a teacher in Palos District 118 schools, is the head of the Department of Driver's Education at Sandburg High School where he also teaches swimming. For 18 years he was varsity basketball coach at that school. Discontinuing basketball coaching at Sandburg he decided to give his time to "the little kids."

In charge of the OYA basketball program for the past five years Adams recruits coaches, makes arrangements for games, schedules, negotiates with four different schools for practice space, and arranges for officials to referee. He says there is a practice session in each school four or five nights each week.

BILL

There are 12 teams of more than 144 youngsters involved.

In addition Adams conducts an all star clinic for the better players in each age group as they get ready for the big games. Two years ago one of his teams received an invitation to play in the International Small Fry Basketball Tournament held in Puerto Rico.

Adams and his wife have two children; college age Debra and Jeff, an eighth grade student in District 135 Junior High. Jeff no longer plays in OYA basketball which takes youngsters from third through sixth grade. Mrs. Hassel said Adams was selected from "many people considered." She added, "The board wanted to select someone who has done over and above what you expect parents to give."

Adams also finds time to help in OYA baseball and other sports activities in the village. He manages the Palos Heights Swimming Pool, and for several years was manager of the Evergreen Park Aqua Pool. He is a member of the United Methodist Church of Orland Park.

Children in grades three through six who are interested in joining OYA basketball may register Saturday, Oct. 7, from 9-12 o'clock at the Park School gym.

There are 400 families with 1,000 children enrolled in the whole OYA program under President Ray Estand. Assisting Estand are Treasurer Karen Bank, Vice Presidents Ted Pankow and Rich Topel, Girls' Executive Committee Chairman Ramona Stoneburner, and Boy's Executive Committee Chairman Dick Hickman. Mrs. Hassel remains in the position of secretary.

Reply due on salary demands

ORLAND PARK — The Board of Education of School District 135 will present its response Monday, Oct. 9, to the 40-page professional negotiations agreement (PNA) handed the board by the Orland Park Education Association.

The document was presented by the OPEA Thursday afternoon of last week in the initial meeting of the two negotiators from the association and the school board. During the five-hour, 4 to 9 p.m. meeting, Atty. Richard W. Laner, representing the school board, and Tom Muer, representing the OPEA, discussed in detail the PNA.

Sitting in were Robert Cullen, representing the administration, and the four-member Teachers' Salary Committee, headed by Charels Palaces, junior high school instructor.

At Monday's meeting Laner will present the board's reply to the PNA. The meeting will be held during the day which is a school holiday, Columbus Day.

Dates for future negotiation meetings will be determined during Monday's meeting.

Supt. Norbert Jerling said that salaries have not yet entered the discussions. "Salary is usually the last thing to be decided," Jerling said Monday evening. He said that after these preliminary meetings the negotiators will discuss the PNA step by step.

The teachers, who have organized under the Illinois Education Association this year, rejected the board's Professional Growth Program and Salary Guide and District Policy on the opening day of school, Sept. 28. The board had expected the teachers to approve the package as they had done in previous years.

Teachers' Salary Committee Chairman Palaces said when the teachers rejected the board's "growth program" they had no intention of striking to obtain their requests.

Jazz Junction

By ART HODES

JAZZ JUNCTION art hodes

GERMANY: And the music goes on. But believe me, it isn't like the good ole U.S.A. Not by a long shot. So I'm there visitin' my son. Some of you might have noticed him growing up. You and I called him Bob, but at his command post he's CPT. Robert Hodes. The first thing one discovers is what the Germans call the Autoban (Dan Ryan). The rule here is drive as fast as you want to but don't hug the outside lane 'cause when I come along I want a clear road. Yeh, they get excited; shake their fist at you. . . But then there are the castles and the various views that entrance you. So you're introduced to German cooking. You're one flight down in a unfancy restaurant and there are two musicians serenading you; a violinist and a pianist. And let me tell you right now they are good. But no jazz. I'm reminded of the "way-back-when" days when one could go into most any place where drink and food was dispensed and there'd be music: live music. Today we can't afford it; you tell me why. . .

Later in my visit I caught a combo (German) that was trying to please the people at a American Officers Club and it was dismal. One player had a jazz tendency. Of course the bright side was here. You're gettin' music with your meal at no extra charge. Then there's the music on TV. Well, occasionally you get bits and pieces but in sum total it's deadly. So I didn't come there to hear the music. Fortunately I was far enough away so I didn't hear the guns go off in Munich either. It's great to go and see but America you're beautiful. . .

IT'S A PASSING SHOW: Bob McCracken, who played his clarinet in many a "joint" in dear ole Chi, then moved to L.A., has been here and gone. Bob played with some of the greatest: Armstrong, Teagarden, Kid Ory etc. . . Lovie Austin, who was pianist-arranger-bandleader backing such all-time greats as blues shouter Ma Rainey and blues artist Ida Cox, made it to 84 right here in Chicago. . . Finally Mezz Mezzrow bowed out in Paris. If you ever get a chance read his book, "REALLY THE BLUES." I recorded with Mezz and we worked along-side one another.

There'll be lot of stories on that cat. One quickly; we were blowing at Jimmy Ryan's (N.Y.C.) one evening when someone reported that clarinetist Barney Bigard, working next door at the Onyx on 52nd Street was jammin' with Benny Goodman. To which the Mezz spoke up "I think I'll take my clarinet in there an blow 'em both out of the room."

LISTEN: Chicago-Columbia-Stereo-KC 31102. And if this is the general direction the 'new' youth is taking musically I'm for it. Here the players are saying "there's much more to music than 3 guitars and a drum". I'm not great on the lyrical directions here, or the story-line. My concern is with the music and I'm duly impressed. These young players have been listening to their jazz peers. And what an impressive packaging job. You dig. . .

OTIS SPANN-Walking the Blues-Barnaby K 231290-Featuring St. Louis Jimmy and Robert Lockwood Jr. And what a down home sound hits my ears. Otis plays (yeh! I should say 'played,' cause he's gone) blues piano like I could listen to 'all nite long'. Lockwood on guitar is good help (its hard to believe there's only two players on this gig); St. Louis J. puts that vocal down real good. Man, you don't describe this kind of LP. You go an listen. . . Count Basie Super Chief-Col. G 31224. Twenty-eight Legendary performances by Basie and his great sidemen featuring vocalists Billie Holiday, Helen Humes, Mildred Bailey and Jimmy Rushing. The LP covers the '36 to '40 time period and for a change it gives me a chance to really appreciate this artist's "pianistics." So you hear Count in the small group setting with such greats alongside of him as Lester Young, Jo Jones, Herschel Evans, Harry Edison, Dicky Wells, and the big band setting. A great package deal.

New Book: Ecstasy at the Onion: 31 Pieces on Jazz. By Whitney Balliett. Bobbs-Merrill. As W.B. does those excellent profiles (on jazz players) for the New Yorker, I must read this. . . And Yale U. has established a D.E. Fellowship Program (D. Ellington); and on Oct. 6 to 8 Duke and members of his band will give a week-end of concerts and seminars. And that's all she wrote. See you. . .

Maycliff organizes

ORLAND PARK — A cause usually unites a group. This is the case in the organization of one of Orland's oldest subdivisions.

The Maycliff Homeowners held their initial meeting Thursday evening at the Administration Building and a second meeting is scheduled for tonight, Oct. 4, at 8 o'clock. Robert Dowdy, acting chairman, said he hopes more Maycliff residents will turn out for this second information meeting.

At last week's meeting 56 families from the subdivision which is more than 10 years old, were represented. This is about one-third of the homes. The group approved the formation of a permanent homeowners' association.

Tonight the group will consider the hiring of any attorney to represent the homeowners before the Cook County Zoning Board in regards to the proposed construction of multiple family housing units north of Maycliff.

Serving with Dowdy are Mrs. Dan Peters, secretary, and committee members Robert Cusack, 143rd Place; James Mosher, 144th Street; Thomas Ahl, 144th Place; Richard Gibula, 145th Street; Larry Harris, 145th Place;

Robert Nevin, 87th Avenue; and Mrs. Robert Mehling, 85th Avenue.

Dowdy said Monday evening the Maycliff group hopes to work with Villa West Homeowners Association and homeowners in Laguna Woods and Silver Lake Dells in securing an attorney.

The Maycliff, attorney, according to Dowdy, would work with the village and school district attorneys in presenting a unified effort to stop the multiple residential rezoning which is being asked for.

The use of petitions, with strong support from village and surrounding area residents, will be an objective of the Maycliff group. Dowdy says.

"We hope to have several thousand signatures on these petitions in opposition to the development," Dowdy expects.

In a flyer distributed to homeowners last week the committee says, "Without proper representation the Maycliff area will give silent approval to the new developments. Are you really in favor of the Hillcrest development? Don't let your silence speak for you."

New life for cemetery

ORLAND - TINLEY PARK — It appears that the future will shine brighter upon the Harlem Avenue Settlers' Cemetery than has the recent past.

Rescued from vandalism and the lack of care the small plot at the base of Orland Park's water tank on Harlem Avenue has been rejuvenated and is in for additional attention and repairs, if Orland Park Mayor Melvin Doogan and the Orland-Tinley Park Cemetery Association can work out details.

Mayor Doogan met Thursday evening of last week with the board of the cemetery association to tell the board his plans. President Robert Bettenhausen was receptive, as were member Clarence Fulton, Henry Beckstein, Sr., and Harry Brandau.

Bettenhausen told Mayor Doogan that the association has more than $2,100 coming from the State Highway Department for land the state had to buy when widening Harlem Avenue. Bettenhausen said the association has never received the money although the purchase was agreed upon in writing.

Mayor Doogan promised the board that he would have the village attorney, Ray Peiper, investigate the payment of this money.

The cemetery board verbally agreed to deed the land to the Village of Orland Park if the village would maintain the property.

Doogan told the board that he could see several uses for the property. One would be to include the property with the land surrounding the water tower and create a park, retaining the cemetery.

Another possibility would be to use the cemetery portion as a memorial area to all local residents who have given their lives in war. Different organizations have talked about a memorial area for sometime, Mayor Doogan pointed out.

The group also discussed the possibility of expanding the cemetery to make it an active burial grounds. Due to the high cost of real estate on Harlem Avenue, this possibility was discounted.

Doogan promised the cemetery board that he would get back to the board members as soon as possible.

City manager good idea

The City of Oak Forest is reaping "dollar and sense" benefits through the abilities of City Manager Ronald Feldner.

Feldner, after many hours of research and negotiations, has managed to secure a valuable piece of property for the city. The site can be used as a park-recreational area and a sub-fire station location.

City maintenance of the property also should appease discontent area residents who have expressed concern over what has been termed an unhealthy eyesore.

The property consists of seven acres formerly used as a burial site near the Cook County Hospital. Appraisal may prove the property to be valued at close to $100,000.

Oak Forest's decision to hire a full time city manager has proved advantageous in many ways.

Tinley Park Village President John Dunn recently appointed three trustees to investigate the possibility and feasibility of hiring a village manager for Tinley Park.

The elected officials in the village have shown intelligence, integrity and uniformity in their realistic goals for Tinley Park. However, negotiations, meetings and research must be carried out at an expense in time and energy to their families as well as themselves, due to full time occupations.

Tinley Park new has a population of over 17,000 residents and village government is big business. Much can be gained when coordination exists on a fulltime scale and takes precedence over individual integrity on a parttime basis.

With a population rapidly exceeding 17,000 village management is in the midst of a mushrooming management maze. The TIMES HERALD fully endorses the hiring of a fulltime village manager for the village of Tinley Park. This manager, in addition to the present elected officials, and numerous volunteers will effectively carry Tinley Park through its teen years and into adulthood.

Throughout the suburbs

Do not forget our downtowns

It is one of the great ironies of the Northwest suburbs that growing and enthusiastic communities such as these are often marred by depressing and unimaginative downtown shopping areas.

Indeed, it has become axiomatic in some suburban towns that large scale shopping centers such as Woodfield and Randhurst draw the most business while local shops are used by customers for last minute or late-hour shopping.

In many cases, downtown shopping areas are bleak and unvaried. They reflect the business attitudes of a time gone by when these suburban towns were remote from the city and when super shopping centers were undreamed of. Obviously, times have changed as have the needs — and demands — of the suburban shopper.

Some communities have made serious attempts to live and enhance their core shopping areas; Palatine's downtown area is generally pleasant and agreeable; in Des Plaines a major downtown renewal effort is underway with strong city support.

And recently, Arlington Heights officials unveiled a new effort to revitalize the center of town and to lure shoppers to the downtown section with eye-appealing malls and better parking facilities.

In many ways, the newest effort in Arlington Heights offers a lesson to many villages and cities in the suburbs. For example, the assessed valuation of the downtown Arlington Heights business district in 1964 was $3,338,018. In 1971 the assessed valuation had only increased to slightly over $4 million. That small increase describes a stagnant and depressing growth rate and a meager understanding of the elements which make a town interesting to live in.

Similarly, downtown areas of Mount Prospect, Rolling Meadows and Wheeling are blighted either in their capacity to meet the needs of casual shoppers or in their appeal to passersby to stop and tarry awhile.

We believe clean, interesting and diverse downtown areas are well within the reach of suburban towns, and further, that new core areas would create not only new business but a sense of community and identity long seen lacking, in much of the suburbs.

The Arlington Heights village plan, if properly implemented, could do much to bring the community together and to offer residents a better town in which to live. We are encouraged by this effort and urge full support for its completion.

Particularly, we urge the support of the business community. Downtown businessmen have a serious obligation to their own central district. In many cases, that obligation has not been met.

Downtown blight is not restricted to the large metropolitan cores alone. Core city decay is as near as the closest uninterested and slothful shopkeeper or the landowner who thinks malls and one-way streets are unnecessary frills.

Indeed, the best description of downtown suburban decay comes from one planner's appraisal of our shopping areas. "The core areas have not kept up with the growth of the suburbs," he said. "And if it's not stopped, the decay will eventually take in everything that is new and good in the suburbs." (From the Arlington Heights HERALD)

On second thought

Weddings encounter a variety of changes

By Glenn Logan

This freedom of expression thing has invaded the wedding field, according to a perusal of metropolitan papers. Not only is there wide variance in settings and ceremonies but the printed accounts are in a casual, conversational style; One formerly encountered this style only in small papers in Kansas and Missouri.

Accounts of weddings are usually carried as straight reporting. If they have a sameness about them it shouldn't be surprising because most weddings are pretty much alike. Most people will agree, I think, that a wedding is an important episode in the life of the participants, but it's generally recognized as the bride's day. And why shouldn't it be? Her folks, and maybe herself, are paying for it.

The bride's gown and the attire of her attendants were formerly described in detail in wedding stories, and this is still done in many publications, accompanied by a picture of the bride in all her glory.

Of late, however, this format has been undergoing some changes.

Nowadays, according to metropolitan papers I've seen lately, a wedding story has become a feature story, the writer seizing upon some point apparently believed to be interesting, and to go on from there.

If the bride wears bib overalls some details would be given but if it's a creation especially designed for this bride and this wedding, no mention is made of it. As for the pictures most of them are crowded into a single column, with the groom alongside, so all one can be sure of is that the bride wore something white. One of the papers had a two-column picture of a wedding the other day in which the participants were on horseback, with the exception of the clergyman.

Well, weddings on horseback are not really new. They have been done many times in the past, and with the preacher on horseback too, giving a sort of a posse effect.

It seems that today many couples are striving to stage their nuptials in a different way. That is a difficult task — finding something different as a setting. Going back over the years one finds something different today is just a re-run of some weddings of the past.

There have been garden weddings, woodland weddings, beach weddings, weddings on ferris wheels, weddings in a circus tent, weddings on a mountainside, weddings at sea, arctic weddings, desert weddings, hotel weddings, weddings in automobiles, weddings in aircraft, TV weddings, hospital weddings and weddings in jails.

I remember being present at a jail wedding one time, the high point of

The big land grab

Villages request assurances

In the Sept. 27 issue the HERALD reported the successful efforts of Tinley Park Trustee Robert Mason to have the Illinois Municipal League adopt a resolution urging action by the Illinois State Legislature requiring subdividers to contribute land or cash for recreational and school purposes.

The following is from the Clarion Herald of Naperville regarding this story.

Naperville received a vote of support on the developer donation question Saturday from the Illinois Municipal League, a plan, study and lobby group of 900 municipalities in the state.

During its three-day convention in Chicago, the IML unanimously passed a resolution supporting Senate Bill 658 which would authorize municipalities to require developer donations of land and/or money for school and park sites. The bill, introduced during the last legislative session by Harris Fawell (R-Naperville), passed the Senate but was not adopted in the House.

The IML resolution, presented by Tinley Park Village Trustee Robert Mason, cited population growth and the rapid disappearance of land as major problems prompting a compulsory planning program.

The resolution further stated that demographic studies of the residential portions of a proposed subdivision can determine the number of persons that school and park facilities will have to accommodate, thereby calculating a fair donation amount.

Naperville City Manager C. William

Norman heralded the IML action at Monday night's city council meeting.

"It speaks to the need for some legislation," Norman said. Legislation, according to Norman, might at least "clear the air" for some communities regarding the question of a municipality's authority in planning matters.

Adding to discussion of the IML resolution, Naperville Corporation Counsel Marvin Glink told the council he has received individualized support from various municipalities since the city's ordinance was challenged in a suit two weeks ago.

The action, filed by the Home Builders Assn. of Greater Chicago, seeks to have Naperville's ordinance declared unconstitutional and to have developers reimbursed for donations previously made under the practice.

Developers fight guarantees

The Naperville ordinance requiring money or land from housing developers in order to gain municipal approval of the developments has been challenged in court.

A suit challenging the constitutionality of the ordinance has been filed in Circuit Court in DuPage County.

The villages of Tinley Park, New Lenox and Mokena have adopted similar ordinances in recent weeks. The Naperville board approved that community's ordinance early in 1972 to become the first community in the state to adopt such a measure.

The class-action suit has been brought against Naperville by the Home Builders Association of Greater Chicago (HBAGC) and developers in the Naperville area.

The association believes that requiring land or money for public parks, recreation or schools violates the 1970 Illinois Constitution by taking private property for public purpose without compensation.

The Home Builders also point out that such ordinances eliminates the due process of law for the developers and creates a double taxation due to the fact that home buyers or renters are paying for the public schools, parks, etc. through the county's real estate taxes.

Letters to the Editor

This letter is in reference to your story (Graphic Herald of Downers Grove) on September 22, 1972 relating to the suit by the Home Builders Assn. of Greater Chicago against the Naperville ordinance which place certain controls on new developments.

There have been references to the fact that other communities are watching this suit because the results may effect them. Good Grief! Watching Every community in DuPage County should become involved.

On June 21, 1972 your paper printed my letter on this subject, headlined "CALLS FOR COUNTY PLAN TO CONTROL DEVELOPERS." In the article one sentence reads as follows: "The municipal governments in this area together with the County Board should file a class action suit..." Instead we find the developers filing a class action suit, and the municipalities are watching.

All communities of any size such as Downers Grove, Lisle, Westmont, Woodridge, Lombard, Glen Ellyn, and Wheaton should join Naperville in defending its ordinance. Your paper should headline this issue because it relates to land use, and land is the most important, most valuable item in every community.

Mayor Houck, (Downers Grove) is quoted in your article as saying that Downers Grove has given little thought to a control ordinance because of a previous Supreme Court decision. Let us remember that Supreme Court decisions are frequently reversed as conditions change, and let us note that Robert K. Widdicombe, Jr., president of the Home Builders has said, "We are starting with Naperville first."

It's my opinion

Polls are tasteless

(This opinion column is open to our readers, giving them an opportunity to submit articles on subjects of their choice. We ask only that the writer contact this office prior to submitting material in order that the article can be scheduled for publication.)

By Jim Glab

When someone told George McGovern last week that he's farther behind in the polls than anyone has ever been in history, McGovern shrugged it off and said he never met anyone who had been polled, and he wondered where the pollsters got their opinion samples.

Polls are a big business nowadays. They can create a bandwagon effect during a political campaign, they can stop a grass-roots upheaval in its tracks, they can influence legislation, and they even determine what programs will be on television next season.

Supposedly Messrs. Gallup, Harris, Roper, Neilsen et al. are scientific in their selection of people to be polled. In their efforts to obtain an accurate cross-section of the national bias on any number of topics, they are careful to make sure that any variable which might influence people's opinions is accounted for in their sample in a degree roughly equal to that variable's frequency in the general population. Hence, the results of a poll can be "broken down" according to race, age, national origin, income, education, sex, religion, residence, occupation, political affiliation and so on.

As a result, pollsters can make statements like: Nixon is leading McGovern by an astonishing 85 to 15 percent among registered Democratic white Southern Catholic college-educated males under 30 with incomes of $10,000-$20,000.

In spite of all this caution, there is always the slender possibility of unforeseen influences combining with inexplicable coincidence. Suppose that Harris or Gallup took a poll with all their usual careful selection methods, and the people in their cross-section all held the "average" views of most people in their various interest groups EXCEPT on one particular topic. And suppose that was the topic they were being polled on.

Let me offer a far-out example. Suppose, for instance, that Gallup selected 1,000 people to include the proper mix according to income, region, religion, etc. for his sample on a Presidential preference poll.

Now suppose that from sheer coincidence, each one of those 1,000 people happened to bear an intense dislike for cottage cheese and for catsup. Now assume they each read somewhere that Mr. Nixon's favorite snack is cottage cheese with catsup on it, which in fact is true and that this creates within them an intense revulsion which they subconsciously transfer from the foods to Mr. Nixon himself. As a result of this influence which could never be foreseen by the pollster and isn't even realized by the people themselves, they all express a preference for McGovern.

Like I said, a far-out example. But perhaps you get my point: some unforeseen influence conceivably could coincidentally converge in a poll and throw the results way off base.

The lesson to be learned from the above is that you can't always trust the results of a scientific poll — there always will be a tiny element of doubt.

Especially if you don't like cottage cheese or catsup.

feet, and takes a longer stride, and steps out at a rate of 116 steps a minute, which is just four paces less than that of a man in the armed services.

Why not, I wonder, take advantage of this and use trap drums instead of guitars, to play the wedding party down and back up the aisle — huh-one, two, three hup! huh-one, two, three, hup! That would put some snap in it. It would add suspense too for the guests — what would happen to the train of the bride's dress?

While novelty weddings appear to fill space in the papers that is available — there are more people, hence more weddings — there is good reason to believe that the traditional type will be with us for a long time.

The traditional wedding ceremony, as if you didn't already know, is one at which the bride and groom both wear shoes.

Crane inside tank lifts spheroid's steel plates into place

By Gertrude Gallagher

You won't believe it! I didn't. Inside that handsome new green and white Orland Park water tower on 88th Avenue near Fairway could be a man. That's right. This very moment that you're gazing at it. Not a source of pollution in Orland's drinking water, he could be climbing up to the top of the "ball" via an inner access tube which pierces the water reservoir from ground level to the top of the ball.

The new tank, the latest in the family of Orland's water system reservoirs, was completed and operating in May of this year. Begun in the fall of 1971, like the other two water towers, was built by Chicago Bridge and Iron Works.

The tower was erected by the village and paid for out of the water fund to which subdividers contribute as they seek to build in the village. The tower, which cost $137,000, has been completely paid for. No bond issues were floated.

What keeps a 130-foot tower which holds 300,000 gallons of water erect against the high winds of the Orland win tunnel?

The concrete foundation for the tower lies 12 feet underground with a 30-foot spread footing. On the foundation is set a hollow reinforced concrete ring wall whose core and outer perimeter are packed with earth. The 130 foot steel tower is attached to the ring wall just above the ground level by anchor bolts.

The main column of the shaft is eight feet wide flaring out to 20-feet at the base. The spheroid top has a 20 foot diameter with a 33 foot circumference.

The 36-foot access tube within the tower, up which a maintenance man can climb, leads to a hatch on the top of the ball. A second hatch near the first would permit him to enter the tank of water from the top of the spheroid and, if necessary, climb down into the water on a ladder on the outside of the access tube.

Although divers are seldom needed periodic inspections of the inside of the tank are made by the installers of the cathodic protection system. This is a method of preventing rust on the inside shell of the tank, not unlike an electrolysis process.

The tower is part of a town reservoir system which holds 1.15 million gallons of water. The Fairway tower and the Catalina tower on Harlem Avenue each have a 300,000 gallon capacity. The tower in the Orland Park Plaza holds 150,000 gallons.

In addition a concrete ground reservoir on West Avenue holds 400,000 gallons. The West Avenue reservoir does not have the gravity pressure flow of the towers, and relies on four booster pumps set in series to push the water out into the mains. There is a well and a pump bringing the water up at the West Avenue site. An old well located back of the Village Hall is no longer in use.

In the early 1950's a town well was sunk in the Orland Plaza, and a tower erected there. The Fairway tower does not have an operative well and pump, and is presently used only as a storage tank. It is force fed water from the Plaza tower.

The well and pump that are on the Fairway site have never been used and were put in the village as an auxiliary well. Trustee John Barker said the equipment is antiquated. Future plans call for the village to purchase a well pump to activate the Fairway well, and to build a facility to house it.

The third well and tower on Harlem Avenue was provided by Catalina Construction Co. as a part of its annexation agreement with the village. It consists of one small pump and well 517 feet in the ground with a 250 gallon per minute pump. In addition a deep 1900-foot well will be activated with a 900 gpm pump soon to be purchased. This well could then deliver 1.3 million gallons of water in a day.

engineer advisor to the village, said that this deep well is one of the deepest in the entire area. "Orland's water is in pretty good shape compared to other towns," he said.

The 517-foot well and building facility is 50 feet north of the base of the Harlem Avenue tower to which it pumps water. The 1900-foot well is outside the building and is marked by a pipe going into the ground and capped on the top. Smith said it took two months to drill this well using rigs, ropes, cables, pipes and shafts.

Orland has agreed to sell 200,000 gallons of water a day to Tinley

Park until that village can purchase Chicago water from Oak Forest. The village hopes to take the water from the shallow Catalina well and use the deep well for the village of Orland.

At present Village Engineer Edmund Burke and Associates is compiling data on the best method of doing this preparatory to the letting of bids. Unique among Orland villages Catalina receives softened water from the Catalina well. Whether softened water will be sold to Tinley depends on the findings of Burke.

Smith said softened water throughout the village may be in the future, but cautioned that installing this equipment by the village could be costly.

The purpose of the reservoirs is to keep a supply of water on hand for peak periods, and prevent continual running of the well pumps. The water height level is maintained equally among the three towers. When the water level in the tanks goes below a certain level and well pumps are automatically activated to bring up the level and keep the tanks full.

Trustee Barker said there is no shortage of water in Orland, and the village has "nothing in mind" regarding any new tanks or wells.

Asked if Chicago water is in the picture for Orland through Oak Forest he said the possibility has been discussed of hooking up in case of an emergency.

The village recently came to an agreement with Oak Forest not to annex beyond the present eastern boundary of the 96 acres owned by Catalina on the east side of Harlem north of 159th Street. Village President Melvin Doogan told the Village trustees the advantage of the agreement would be, "More for bargaining purposes." He added Orland might wish to call on Oak Forest at some time for water or sewer assistance."

Cub scouting: a family affair

ORLAND PARK — Jim Larson had to tell his audience only once — at the start — to be quiet, then, he kept their rapt attention while he explained the world of scouting.

Thursday evening fathers and mothers brought their Cub Scout aged boys to Orland Park School for the annual Scout Night to learn about scouting and hopefully to sign up their youths for a den.

However, as Larson explained, cub scouting is a "family affair" and if there are not enough mothers willing to be den leaders there will not be enough dens to accommodate the boys who wish to start the scouting program.

This was the situation Thursday night as the crowded bleachers at Park School emptied and the parents and their offspring filed five deep around the registration table.

Some of the fathers, with their questioning sons tugging their dad's hands, had to be turned away due to the lack of dens and adult leaders.

Scout Leader Larson had pointed out earlier that the South Suburban area had 9,000 volunteer adult leaders but that more are needed. He announced that a leaders' training program would be held at Orland Park Center School on 151st Street tonight, Oct. 4, beginning at 7 p.m.

All volunteers who signed Thursday evening are requested to attend the training program.

Rayson attacks shoddy builders

SOUTHWEST — State Rep. Leland H. Rayson (D-Tinley Park), appearing before numerous homeowners groups in recent weeks, has called for relief to homeowners who have encountered dilemmas in dealing with certain land developers, and has suggested a six-point program to protect homeowners.

According to Rayson, the problems have centered around flooding, financing and defective work, as well as questionable sales representation practices.

While making inspections of Kaufman & Broad homes, located in the Woodgate subdivision in Matteson, and the Appletree development in Country Club Hills and Hazel Crest, Rayson found yet unoccupied homes filled with water with no retention ponds available. Some homes were found to be slipping from their foundations.

Rayson explained that the state legislature should require all builders and developers to give full representation, in advertisements or in model homes, to the location of area schools, the tax rates of municipalities and assessed valuations per pupil in the school districts. "This would offer the prospective homebuyer relevant information rather than merely a fast sales pitch with the promise of low and easy financing," he said.

In order to protect homeowners once buildings are completed, Rayson has co-sponsored a bill in the Illinois General Assembly which would require builders to post a bond or cash, when applying for a builder's permit, that would cover defects in the home for a one-year period. Another means of protecting the homeowner would be a regulation requiring the builder to provide a full warranty on the home, Rayson added. "This would compel builders to get behind their products," he said.

Rayson cited Metropolitan Sanitary District figures which state that taxpayers in the Chicago area will have to pay approximately $200 million to correct problems which currently exist in regard to improper retention ponds and flood control in areas similar to Appletree.

A former member of the Low Income Housing Commission, Rayson also urged the formation of a Housing Regulation Practices Commission which also examining HUD policies governing the issuance of reservations for Section 235 low income housing.

Implementation of an effective land use policy is essential to insure homebuyer protection, Rayson remarked. "Proper land use would not permit the building of homes on rock beds as in Appletree. This area should not have been used for home building, and consequently major problems with flooding due to runoff have occurred," he added.

Finally, as further protection for the homeowner, Rayson urged passage of House Bill 2239, the Consumer Advocacy Act, which would establish the office of Consumer Advocate for the State of Illinois. The Consumer Advocate would act as an ombudsman for the citizens of the state.

The office would have the power to go to court on behalf of consumers; represent the consumer before any administrative or legislative proceeding; evaluate the consumer orientation of state agencies and recommend changes; secure the release of suppressed consumer related information from state and local government.

"The Consumer Advocate would provide the consumer with a place in state government to which he can readily go with any consumer problem," Rayson stated.

The Madera "boys" have compiled a record of 90 years with Dreis & Krump Manufacturing Co. of Chicago. A.J. DeWolf (left), president of Dreis & Krump, extends congratulations to 50-year employee Rudy Madera and sons, Robert and Richard.

Rudy marks 50 years

ORLAND PARK — A resident of this community, his father and brother have "logged" more than 90 years of employment with the Dreis & Krump Manufacturing Co. of Chicago.

Rudy Madera, lather operator, this month completed 50 years of service as an employee of the company. His sons, Robert and Richard, both started in 1952. Robert is an Orland Park resident.

The golden anniversary was celebrated with a company-wide "Rudy Madera Day" attended by some 400 employees of this Chicago press manufacturing firm.

Congratulations and awards were presented by A.J. DeWolf, president of Dreis & Krump and past president of the National Machine Tool Builders' Association. DeWolf noted the firm's "long-standing tradition as a family-type company" engaged in the manufacture of "Chicago" presses, press brakes, shears and other metalworking machinery since 1899.

Madera received a telegram of congratulations from Gov. Richard Ogilvie and also a tribute from Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago, which read in part:

"It has often been my good fortune to write couples celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. I have also had the opportunity to congratulate persons celebrating their 50th birthday.

"But rarely have I had the pleasure of sending greetings to someone celebrating his 50 years of service with a company!"

Madera, a youthful-looking 66, joined Dreis & Krump in 1922 when he was 15 years old. Over the years he worked as a turret lathe operator - and is still employed in the company's machine shop as an engine lathe operator.

"Making chips," said Rudy.

He is an avid fisherman and bowler, and formerly played on the company's softball team as a shortstop. He and his wife, Catherine, have been married 45 years. They live at 66 Lincoln St., Riverside, and have two sons and four grandchildren.

Both sons, Richard and Robert, are also employees of Dreis & Krump Mfg. Co. — both joined the company in 1952 — both celebrate their 20th anniversaries with the firm this year. With their father, they have a combined record of 90 years' service in the company.

Richard Madera was hired as a crater and was promoted to leadman. He and his wife Dorothy, have been married 22 years, have two children (Richard Jr. and Linda), and live at 3028 S. Quinn St., Chicago, in the Bridgeport neighborhood.

Robert Madera hired on as a stockman clerk; became head stockman clerk; and ultimately was promoted to foreman. He and his wife, Anna Mae, have been married 13 years and have two children (Robert Jr. and Joan). They recently moved to a new home at 7840 W. Wheeler St., Orland Park.

sibility of determining policy in the operation of the schools.

Stevenson office pledges study

SOUTHWEST — Residents of the south suburbs can expect a full-fledged investigation of the reported crisis in housing according to an announcement made to the HERALD late Monday by Les Goldman, assistant to Senator Adlai Stevenson during a telephone conversation from Washington, D. C. Although no date has been set for the investigative hearings which will be conducted in the Rainbow Valley section of Mokena, Beacon Hill-Forest Heights in Chicago Heights, Richton Hills in Richton Park and Appletree in country Club Hills, Goldman claims that residents can expect field hearings to begin sometime at the beginning of calendar year 1973.

Goldman explained that Stevenson has proposed an investigation which will begin in Washington, after the national elections in November. Following initial hearings in the capital, investigators will be sent to areas where housing problems have been reported to gather testimony and physical evidence corroborating allegations that numerous building corporations have been violating federal rules relevant to the construction of government financed residential units.

The Democratic Senator from Illinois also proposed a bill Monday, which will enable homeowners who purchased homes under non-subsidized Federal Housing Administration (F.H.A.) mortgage arrangements to receive reimbursements for structural defects in their homes.

In a release to the press regarding the proposed legislation, Stevenson said: "Instead of passing the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1972, it appears that the House of Representatives is prepared to adopt the resolution simply extending present housing programs. It thus appears that the many reforms included in the bill passed by the senate will not become law this year."

"Unsuspecting homeowners across the nation, including many in my own city of Chicago, have been innocent victims of local Housing and Urban Development mismanagement and unscrupulous practices. These families have purchased existing homes with FHA insured mortgages only to find that the homes have serious structural defects and are in a deteriorating condition. FHA, not the purchaser, bears the clear responsibility for this situation since HUD regulations stipulate that FHA appraisers may not approve a house for an FHA mortgage unless it meets HUD's minimum property standards."

"Under present law, families who had purchased subsidized housing under sections 203 and 221d2—some 70 percent of all HUD transactions—are not eligible for such compensation. Equity and justice, as well as consistency, demand that they also be eligible for reimbursement necessitated by faulty government inspections."

"I introduced legislation to remedy this inequity and was hopeful it would be part of the Housing and Urban Development Act of 1972. Time is running out for this session of the Congress, but today I will introduce an amendment which will include this vital reimbursement provision. I intend to bring this amendment up before the Senate Banking, Housing and Urban Affairs Committee when it meets Tuesday morning to act upon the house-passed resolution."

"All federally insured homeowners deserve the same reimbursement for defects ignored by HUD's appraisers in violation of its own minimum property standards. Thousands of purchasers wronged by the federal government have already waited too long for the Congress to act. I am encouraged by the West Side Coalition's determination that this provision be passed this year, and I will do what I can to help."

Commenting on the housing dilemma of many homeowners who purchased homes backed by a federal mortgage guarantee, Goldman said, "What the senator intends to do is work through homeowners who have been cooperating with us. We intend to be in touch with the various homeowners and call them all together and let them know what we need."

Goldman also explained that the government will contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation which has been conducting a probe into the activities of builders using federal monies to develop housing complexes.

Those homeowners with bonafide complaints who wish to provide input at the up-coming hearings will also be allowed to present testimony concerning the extent of difficulties experienced as a result of faulty constructions.

Homeowners unable to afford the cost of contacting authorities will also be called upon by the field investigators. Said Goldman, "We hope to find those who don't have the resources to find us."

Area residents tour landfill

PALOS-ORLAND — Jane Andringa, President of the League of Women Voters of Palos-Orland, and Evelyn Maloney, member of the League's Environmental Quality Committee studying all aspects of the environment, went on a tour of DuPage County Forest Preserve District's Sanitary Landfill at Roy G. Blackwell Forest Preserve recently. Other Palos Park residents were Irene Chocholek, Environmental Quality study chairman, and members Georgia Knez and Judy Colby.

The tour was part of a study of solid waste disposal that began last August with a film on recycling, followed by a presentation of his incinerator plan by Mayor Fred Dumke of Oak Lawn. Leaguers then toured the Du Page sanitary landfill, and one in Wilmette, the former operated by the Forest Preserve District, the latter by a private landfill company. These studies will be the basis for a consensus position on solid waste disposal.

Anyone interested in joining, or knowing more about, the League in Palos-Orland is invited to call the membership chairman, Judy Marzano, 448-8992.

First aid book lists antidotes

First Aid Recipe
 1 part strong tea
 1 part milk of magnesia
 2 parts crumbled, burnt toast

You won't find it in a cookbook, but in the Red Cross First Aid Textbook...it's the universal antidote. If your child should swallow something poisonous, you should have this recipe on hand.

October is American Red Cross "First Aid Month." First aid classes will be starting in your neighborhood in early October, whether in Chicago or the suburbs. Classes run for one evening a week for five weeks. They are open to anyone 14 years of age or older. Instruction is free.

To register, simply attend the first class meeting. The Red Cross Standard First Aid course teaches you what to do in these crucial seconds after any common emergency. For the location and early October starting date of a first aid class near you, watch this newspaper for announcements of Red Cross first aid classes in your area.

Candy Days Oct. 6 & 7

The Good Guys Are Coming!

The "Good Guys" of Illinois Lionism, some 28,000 strong, prepare to go all-out in the statewide campaign to support the visually handicapped of Illinois and the many worthwhile community projects.

On Lions CANDY DAYS, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6 and 7, the "Good Guys" all over Illinois will be manning street corners and public buildings, giving away candy rolls in exchange for contributions to expand the world of the visually handicapped. Look for the "Good Guys" wearing their familiar yellow caps and aprons.

Candy Day contributions support the Hadley School for the Blind; Leader Dogs for the Blind; Dialogue, a Recorded Magazine for the Blind; Illinois Camp Lions for the Visually Handicapped; the Lions Mobile Glaucoma Screening Unit, operated and staffed by the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness; plus a number of community sight conservation and aid to the blind projects.

Everyone can be a "Good Guy" on Lions Candy Day by dropping a contribution into the canisters of the "Good Guys". Remember, too, that the first contribution that went into the canister was made by the Lion holding it. Tell him he's a "Good Guy" and you would like to be one too. The smile you'll get in return will make it worthwhile.

This year's Lions CANDY DAY is Friday and Saturday, Oct. 6 and 7. The statewide goal is $850,000. Help the "Good Guys" help others.

The Summit Hill Parent-Teacher Organization will sponsor a trip to the Croydon China Plant on Monday, Oct. 23. Mokena

The next regular meeting of the Mokena Women's Club will be held Monday, Oct. 9, 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Berle F. Needham, LaPorte Road, Mokena. Mrs. Margaret Robertson, legislative chairman for the group, will introduce the program which will feature George Sangmeister and Harry Leinenweber, candidates for State Representative from the 42nd District.

Co-hostesses of the Mokena Garden Club's Oct 3rd meeting were Mrs. Virginia Lanham and Mrs. Esther Neef. The program included a business meeting and a Members' Workshop on Market Place items for the annual Flower Show, now scheduled for Nov. 4, 5. Members of the Garden Club will welcome anyone interested in attending the show. For more information, please contact Membership Chairman, Mrs. Betty Holman, 469-5928.

Also, the Garden Club was collective hostess to the Will County Federation of Garden Clubs Monday, Oct. 2 at St. John's Church, Mokena. The program was given by Mrs. James McFarlane, Chicago, who is past president of Park Hills Garden Club Council and the Garden Club of Morgan Park. She is also a nationally accredited Flower show Judge and is on the Illinois Judges Honor Roll.

The Parent-Teacher Association held its first meeting for the new school year Sept. 26. Parents had the opportunity to visit with all the teachers and to familiarize themselves with all three schools. It is reported that many of those in attendance took advantage of the bus service that was provided to the Carpenter Street School.

The theme for 1972-73 is "Roads to Follow," and area residents are invited to follow the 'yellow brick road' to family fun on Saturday, Oct. 7 at the P.T.A. Country Fair, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Willowcrest School. The program will include sewing, baking, canning, needlecraft, small animals, wood-working and a baby contest. Also, there will be games for all ages, such as a tug-o-war, greased pig, pony rides and demolishing a car. Everyone is urged to attend and join the fun.

Band Boosters fund-raising projects for the year were the main business at a recent meeting. Summer Band expenses and instrument repair bills have nearly depleted the group's treasury; also, with the increase in Band membership, additional expenses are anticipated. Therefore, according to Mrs. Daniel Weifelman, the Boosters will need the support of area residents on all their money-making endeavors. Betty Crocker coupons are still being collected by the group. Boxes are set up in all three schools, or mail them to Mokena Band Boosters, c/o Willowcrest School, Mokena, Ill 60448.

Four varieties will be sold for $1 a dozen. This is one of several fund-raising projects scheduled by the combined P. T. O. for the coming school year. For each dozen donuts sold, the Parent Teacher Organization will earn $.35 profit.

The Frankfort Fire Department is calling volunteers from Frankfort Square to begin training necessary to become active members of the force. After an applicant is accepted by the Fire Department, a full six months of intensive training follows, with continual training (for all members of the department) thereafter. Consequently, men interested should join the force now, according to Fireman Ralph Eisenbrandt, and begin training as soon as possible, so that the department can continue to provide our community with the best possible fire protection.

For more information, call Fire Chief Bruce Wells at 469-5459, or Deputy Milton Batson at 469-5415.

Frankfort Square School Principal Gerald Cummings recently announced the formation of the Instructional Improvement Committee. Members are Mrs. William T. Reid, 236 Laurel Drive; Mrs. Owen T. Bechtel, 322 Greenfield Lane; Mrs. Peter Carolle, 306 Greenfield Lane and Mrs. David Abels, 241 Laurel Drive. This committee will work with Mr. Cummings and his staff, which includes Mrs. Cathy Klick, Mrs. Stannye Bybee, Miss Ann Ballance and Mrs. Marcia Hoffman, in planning the educational program and objectives for the school. Also, they will be involved in such projects as choosing practical, serviceable furniture for the new classrooms.

In order that the children of Frankfort Square can feel that they are part of the planning program, they, too, are represented on the I. I. C. Selected by their classmates, these students have contributed ideas from a student's point of view that, Cummings asserts, might otherwise have been overlooked. Representing the fourth grade is Leslie Garrigan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Garrigan, 317 Jonquil Lane. The fifth graders' choice was Scott Reid, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Reid, 236 Laurel.

Plans are being made for the annual P.T.O. Also at the Bazaar will be a prize drawing, from tickets sold by fourth, fifth and sixth graders from both schools. Tickets will cost 25 cents each, or five for $1. (The child selling the highest number of tickets will also receive a prize.) One prize, a ceramic Christmas Tree, has already been donated to the P. T. O. However, other

Nu-Way keeps contract

MOKENA — Nu Way Disposal Service, Inc. will continue to provide refuse pick-up for the village, in accordance with the new contract awarded the company by the village board at its general meeting last week.

Nu Way's bid was accepted by the board with the cost of service (per month) as follows: homes, $1.85; four-flat apartments, $1.60 per unit; six-flat apartments, $1.50 per unit; eight-flat or more, $1.30 per unit; business houses (stores and offices), $2.00 per cubic yard of trash and schools, $1.55 per cubic yard of trash. (A cubic yard of trash is estimated at eight or nine garbage cans full.) Free service will be provided for the village hall and fire house.

The contract is in effect from Oct. 1, 1972 and ends Sept. 30, 1977. It is automatically renewable for an additional five years unless either the village board or Nu Way Co. specifies otherwise in writing 30 days prior to the scheduled expiration date.

Also at that meeting, the Mokena Fire Department was granted a building permit, with costs of the permit and subsequent building inspections waived by the board.

The permit was necessary preceding construction of an addition to the fire station now in existence. The expansion will house fire trucks, as well as allowing extra room for storing small equipment and adequate office space and meeting rooms.

Village President Will Tuttle reported on a letter from Fire Chief Fred Rauch concerning the placement of water hydrants in the new subdivision, Pheasant Ridge, now taking form near 195th Street.

According to the letter, inspection of the area beginning developed by Hillcrest

Builders revealed that the hydrants have been positioned too far apart. The pipes, properly placed, should have a distance of no more than 300 feet between them; this allows the fire department maximum accessibility to the hydrants when necessary. Chief Rauch's account showed two hydrants were 412 feet apart and two others were 379 feet apart.

The board was requested to review its contract with Hillcrest Builders to determine what agreement was made regarding the matter prior to construction of Pheasant Ridge. If the contract stipulates placing the hydrants 300 feet apart, the builder will then be forced to undertake the costly removal and replacement of the pipes. President Tuttle promised immediate action.

Village Trustee Robert Teske last week distributed material pertaining to the referendum on the purchase of the Walter Yunker garage on Front Street.

In an open letter to the residents of Mokena, Teske wrote: "The referendum coming up on Oct. 7, 1972 is the result of a few people in our community who for some reason starting untrue rumors spreading throughout the community, which leads to unnecessary expense to all concerned."

"Not one of the 51 people who signed the petition calling for a referendum on the purchase of the Walter Yunker Garage on Front Street has attended a single village board meeting to get the facts on the purchase. I know for a fact, after talking to some of the people personally who signed the petition, they will be voting YES on Oct. 7 because they now have the facts."

Teske's letter continued: "Marvin Homerding wrote an article a couple of weeks ago spelling out his personal feelings toward the purchase of Mr.

Yunker's property. For those of you who did not see his article, I will give you a few facts of why the village should purchase the property and also what it will cost you and me as taxpayers of Mokena."

According to Teske's letter, the acquisition of the property will be beneficial to the village. It states that "both the Department of Public Works and the Police Department are in need of housing. Currently, the dilapidated old house just east of the village hall is used for the Police Department in the front and the Public Works in the rear of the building. The board had considered the possibility of repairing the old house; however, it was advised that the structure was not sound."

Also considered was an addition to the east of the village hall for the use of the police. An addition of the size necessary would cost approximately $8,000 to $10,000.00.

Teske's letter pointed out, too, that such an arrangement would further the parking problems that already exist every time there is a board meeting.

Another problem confronting the board is the lack of storage space for village equipment, such as trucks, tractors, mowers and other small tools which now are left out in bad weather to rust and deteriorate, contends Teske. A building for this purpose could cost $10,000 to $12,000.00.

"The village board this year has eliminated two five cent rates in the current levy. The purchase price of Mr. Yunker's property is $75,000.00, which is on a contract basis and is set up for 10 years," the letter continues. This will mean a $7,500 payment per year, with 6 percent interest on the unpaid balance.

Teske calculates a 12 cent tax rate the first year, which would be off-set by the two five cent rates dropped, with a total increase of two cents. For a $10,000 assessment, he says, the purchase of the property would cost taxpayers, individually, $2.00 per year.

Teske concedes that the Yunker Garage is in need of some repair. For example, the large overhead door will have to be removed and replaced. Also, the roof will require attention, but this, it is said, will be done at Yunker's expense.

If the property is acquired, it is hoped that some space within the garage can be rented to the township until such time as the village needs the entire building.

Drug keeps user 'going'

JOLIET — "Bretylium and Its Use in Fatal Cardiac Dysrhythmias" is the title of the paper to be presented by Dr. Theodore Z. Polley, director of Medical Education at Silver Cross Hospital, to medical students at the University of Nagasaki, Japan, on Oct. 23.

Dr. Polley will speak under the auspices of the American College of Cardiology and the American Heart Association.

Bretylium is a new drug which acts as a defibrillator to the heart in fibrillation, eliminating the need for electric shock which has been used in the past.

Farm unit may loan more for operations

WILL COUNTY — Within the next few weeks, Farmers Home Administration, USDA, will be getting authority to increase their $35,000 farm operating loan limit to $50,000.

These loans are made by the local Farmers Home Administration county offices to family farmers of persons with sufficient farm experiences or training to succeed as family farmers after the loan is made. An operating loan can help a family farmer increase his standard of living and rely less on non-farm income.

Farmers Home Administration farm operating loans are made to buy livestock, machinery, irrigation or other equipment; to refinance farm debts that a farm operator cannot meet; and for other farm operating type expenses that call for longer term credit.

Year to year farm expenses such as seed, fuel, fertilizer, labor and family living expenses also may be financed through Farmers Home Administration. Certain other operation expenses for farmer owned non-farm enterprises may qualify for assistance. Farmers Home Administration loan funds are only used for those items essential to an operation.

The interest rate for Farmers Home Administration farm operating loans is 5% per cent for fiscal year 1973. Livestock, equipment and refinancing loans can be made for up to a seven-year period depending upon operator's repayment ability.

Francis Field memorial to early Will 4-H leader

WILL COUNTY — Did you ever drive by the Fred A. Francis 4-H Field on Francis Road near New Lenox and wonder how it all came about?

A place of their own for Will County 4-H members to meet and to exhibit their projects was just a dream until the early 1960's. That was when the late Mrs. Fred A. Francis gave the 18-acre tract for use by 4-H. She gave it in memory of her husband who was one of the early volunteer 4-H leaders in Will County.

Many businesses, organizations and individuals helped the 4-H clubs raise money to build the exhibition buildings and improve the facilities. The Will County 4-H Junior Fair Association was formed to direct activities at Francis 4-H Field.

Gene Klett, a 4-H leader from Joliet, who is an engineer at the Caterpillar Tractor Co., is the chairman of the 4-H Junior Fair Board. Klett explains that the purpose of the board is to maintain and improve the facility so 4-H'ers can use it for years to come. Representatives to the board are elected from the 4-H Federation, 4-H leaders, Cooperative Extension Service Advisory Council and the Farm Bureau board.

Klett says the other members of the 4-H Junior Fair Board are Mrs. William Bettenhausen, Frankfort; Richard Borms, Peotone; Mrs. Richard Brady, Lockport; Norman Christiansen, Peotone; Mrs. Don Cowger, Plainfield; Kent Heisner, Peotone; Mrs. Robert Hunniford, Mokena; Lee Kramer, Manhattan; Mrs. John Meyer, New Lenox; Loren Sass, Lockport; Mrs. William Shinn, Lockport; and Al Thompson, New Lenox.

In addition to such maintenance jobs as painting and repairing broken windows, the board has completed building a fence along Francis Road, improved the gravel roads on the field and is preparing to fence the other three sides of the property.

Klett says the recent decision to have a residence on the property has reduced the vandalism and has improved the use of Francis 4-H Field by community groups. "After all," Klett says, "many people helped build the field. They should be able to rent it."

No record wanted here

WILL COUNTY — A .330 batting average or a 25 percent increase in sales are statistics that are easy to live with. But the 40 deaths in Will County caused by motor vehicle accidents since Jan. 1 is a figure most people would rather forget.

4-H'ers enrolled in the automotive care and safety project are doing something about highway safety. The Automotive Safety Program is a supplement to high school driver education and other driver training programs. Its goal is to develop the proper attitude toward safe driving. 4-H'ers learn what makes a car "go", how to keep the "go" safely maintained and under control.

Safety at home is important, too. The "Hazard Hunt" 4-H activity helps 4-H'ers track down potential dangers around the house. "Gun Safety" is a project designed to teach proper care and handling of firearms.

4-H'ers in babysitting learn about safety in caring for children. Mr. LaVerne Hahney, chairman of the Will County Safety Council has instructed the 4-H'ers in mouth-to-nose resuscitation.

Screaming Eagles hit
Oak Lawn for a win

ORLAND PARK — The Carl Sandburg Eagles came from behind last Friday night to defeat a tough Oak Lawn team 17-15 on the Eagle turf.

The Eagles jumped ahead 10-0 in the early going thanks to a Steve Nelson field goal and an eight-yard touchdown pass from Wally Atkinson to split end Sonny Bain. Oak Lawn came back quickly within one point of the Eagles before half time making the score 10-9.

In the second half, a Wally Atkinson pass was intercepted which set up Oak Lawn for a go-ahead touchdown and a lead of 15-10.

With 11 minutes in the game left, the Eagles put together one of their best drives of the season which eventually turned into a touchdown with just moments left to go. The key of the drive was when the Eagles were on Oak Lawn's five-yard line with a fourth and four yards to go for a first down.

The Eagles gave the ball to junior Bob Nagel who came within a foot of the goal to set up a Vincent touchdown.

Vincent of the Eagles was the game's leading rusher with 19 carries for 80 yards. Bob Nagel and Bill Niebuert also contributed with 30 important yards gained apiece.

The Eagle defense played well giving the Spartans of Oak Lawn only 113 yards on the ground and 62 yards in the air.

Coach Cliff Eade said, "There were some mistakes but I was glad to see the team never give up and come back to take a two point lead with just moments left in the game." Coach Eade commented, "There was great team unity, not just from the players but from the freshman and sophomore coaches helping spot weaknesses in the Oak Lawn team."

The Eagles will be in for another hard game next week when they face a tough Evergreen Park team which lost to Homewood Flossmoor by only two points Saturday. This all-important game will be at Evergreen Park on Saturday, Oct. 7, starting at 2 p.m.

Residents get mailers

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest Park District has sent out 5,000 mailers announcing its athletic programs available to Oak Forest residents.

Registration for these programs will be held Oct. 3, 4, 5 and 6 in the St. Damian Church vestibule, 5300 W. 155th St., from 12 to 4 p.m.

Eagles fix Oak Lawn

ORLAND PARK — The Carl Sandburg sophomore football team came from a 6-0 score at halftime to defeat Oak Lawn last Friday night, 20-6.

Greg Wymer, Pat Malone and Terry Richardson were the Eagle scorers with a touchdown each. The Eagles record now stands at 2-1 overall and 1-1 in conference play.

The next game for the sophs is at Evergreen Park next Saturday at noon.

Eagles suffer flame out

ORLAND PARK — Last week the Carl Sandburg cross country team lost by identical scores of 17-40 to Oak Lawn and Lincoln-Way High Schools. Brian Pascal was the only Eagle to finish in the top five of both meets.

Coach John Wilson said, "The loss of Tim Close hurt us this week as he is one of our top runners." Due to illness, Close also will be a doubtful starter for the harriers next meet. Coach Wilson also added, "Both Oak Lawn and Lincoln-Way have strong teams but I think the Eagles would have defeated them with Close and a few breaks."

The Eagle harriers record now stands at 3-5 overall and 0-2 in conference. The Eagles' next meet is at Bremen High School on Thursday with the meet beginning at 4 p.m.

Board members have new duty

OAK FOREST — William Madden, District 145 President, appointed two new committee chairmen from the board members at the district's meeting Wednesday night.

Madden appointed James Cook and George Roller as chairmen of the Building and Planning Commission, replacing William Shannon. Ronald Adamson was appointed chief negotiator with the teachers replacing Gustav Horn.

The men were replaced, according to Madden, because Horn and Shannon would not return a questionnaire sent them May 10 requesting their preferences and experience in different areas qualifying them for different board committees.

A committee report was given at the district meeting outlining the health and physical education guidelines for the coming school year.

Jim Jones, coordinator of the program, discussed three advantages the program had for children of the district.

The first advantage of the program was the development of kicking skills that would improve the child's athletic abilities from grades one through eight. Soccer and football activities are emphasized in the program.

A drug education program was outlined for the fifth through eighth grades. The program is designed to be worked into the lower grades eventually. Presently, the lower grades are taught only that medication is taken when someone is sick, Jones said.

The advantage of the program is that it teaches the children about drugs, nutrition and sex. Fifth and sixth grades learn about drugs half of the time, and about nutrition the other half. Seventh and eighth graders learn about drugs and venereal disease.

Jones noted that half of the time is spent on physical education, and the other half on health.

Scouts will deliver red balls

OAK FOREST — The Oak Forest Jaycees will sponsor Operation Red Ball, Saturday, Oct. 7, a project designed to save children's and invalids lives in case of fire.

More than 60 boy scouts will go door to door in Oak Forest giving free red ball decals to families with children or invalids in their home.

The Jaycees started the program after reading various national surveys. The surveys indicated that small children usually hide under their beds or in closets when fire breaks out, instead of evacuating the house. The children often suffocate before the firemen have a chance to reach them.

The red ball decals are placed in the upper left hand corner of the child's window. If two or more children are occupying the same room, red balls should be placed next to each other, or if there are two windows, one on each window. If any invalids are in the home, a red ball is placed on the front door.

Any homes that do not receive red ball decals on Saturday may pick them up at the city hall during normal business hours.

Vacancy must be filled

OAK FOREST — The Bremen Community High School District 228 board will hold interviews to fill a recent opening on the school's board.

The opening, caused by the recent resignation of John F. Yuska, is available to any interested persons in the Bremen Township community. An appointment may be made with the board of education at the Administrative Center, 15233 Crawford Ave., Midlothian, by phoning 389-1175.

The appointment of the new board member will be made in 30 days by Board Pres. Donald Slattery.

Yuska, who was not able to complete an unexpired term on the board, left a position that will again be up for re-election in April, 1973. In April, Yuska's and the president's term will be up for re-election for a three year term.

Tinley High starts nursery

TINLEY PARK — The Tinley Park High School Child Development class will conduct a nursery school Oct. 30 through Dec. 21. The program will be held from 12:30-1:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday for children between 3-5 years old.

Applications by mail will be accepted on a first come-first serve basis. Applications should include parents name, child's name, age and sex and be mailed to Mrs. K. Sgariglia, Tinley Park High School, 6111 W. 175th St., Tinley Park, 60477. A confirmation will be returned by the school.

Bremen approves increases for service personnel

OAK FOREST-The Bremen School Board, District 228, approved the classified salary proposals at its Sept. 26 meeting.

The board approved the classified salaries for 132 people. The classified area includes custodians, maintenance, aids, cafeteria staff, and general clerical personnel.

Under the new proposal if a person retires from district 228, he is given a percentage of his accumulated sick leave. Also, the four week vacation that was originally given to employees after 15 years, has been moved up to 10 years. Salary increases and health insurance programs were covered in the teachers contract which was approved Sept. 12.

The only exception to the classified proposals was the salary of a secretary since she has been trained in data processing for the past two years.

The board noted that the secretary is now a trained data programmer, and to replace her would cost much more than she was being paid, Ron Harley, board member, said. The board then voted to raise her salary to $13,000 to compensate for her new position as school programmer.

The board also approved the Prudential Insurance program of $38,000 for the entire district, as well as the classified. This proposal updates the benefits that were originally in the program.

Mrs. Rosemary Pugliese requested that the board give the classified personnel the same consideration they gave the teachers in settling their contract. "I think these people deserve more consideration than they are getting now," she said.

The board voted to form a committee that would meet with personnel other than teachers so that each would get an equal amount of time in negotiating their contracts.

In order to change Bremen High School from fuel oil to gas, the board voted to grant Northern Illinois Gas easement rights on school property on Crawford Avenue up to 152nd Street.

For $1, the board will give Northern Illinois Gas the right-of-way to lay pipes for gas on school property. Northern Illinois Gas will spend over $9000 to put the pipe in, Wallace Carpenter, Asst. Supt. of Business said.

The curriculum for the new Area Technical Center, 138th and Crawford in Crestwood, was presented to the board.

The center is the fifth high school to open in the district. The school officially opened Aug. 29 to 550 students enrolled in the program. The students come from eight different high schools in districts 218, 227 and 228.

The technical center offers programs in drafting, horticulture, data processing, secretary, accounting and other technically skilled program. 73 students come from Bremen High School, 18 from Oak Forest, and 64 from Tinley Park.

Frederick Flenner, board secretary, informed the board that the first meeting of the Citizens Educational Council will be held at the Bremen High School Library Oct. 16.

The council was recognized as an advisory committee to the board. The purpose of the council is to attract citizens into the Bremen community to take part in determining programs that will be used by the board of education. The council is open to all interested citizens, Flenner said.

Flenner was against having too many administrators and teachers on the committees. He felt citizens would not be able to voice their opinions.

The council is divided into 6 committees: district reapportionment, all year schools, citizens, fine arts center, what shall be the schools role in this area, and greater use of school facilities, Flenner added.

The board distributed a report on the use of drugs in the Bremen Township High Schools. Asst. Supt. Robert Wheat discussed the drug problem with the board.

Wheat read an article by Mike Royko, Daily News newspaper columnist, written in 1969. The article, "If they know, Why warn em?" discussed the problem of telling teenagers facts about drugs they are already familiar with.

Discussion on the drug problem in the district's high schools concerned the role of the teacher with the students and their parents. Wheat emphasized that the teachers will contact authorities if a student is suspected to be involved with drugs. The drug report included a listing of materials that could be obtained by residents in the school districts instructing parents and students on drug abuse.

Later in the meeting, Mrs. Pugliese discussed poor conditions at the Special Educational Co-op building, 183rd Street and Ridgeland Avenue. Mrs. Pugliese requested the board have screens put on the windows, the water examined and better recreational facilities established for students at the Center.

John Flynn, Supt. of District 228, said this was the first time he had heard anything about this problem, and that the Co-op would have to request the materials from the board. Flynn pointed out they could not demand what Mrs. Pugliese suggested.

Ronald Harley, board member, suggested that someone should come to the board meetings quarterly to report the centers status. The board agreed.

Carpenter, Asst. Supt. of Business, notified the board that the interest from the building fund had been received from the County Treasurers office for $72,256. He added also that they paid the treasurers fees of $22,292.

The board also approved the bid of $55,350 for construction of two baseball fields at Hillcrest High School, 175th Street and Crawford Avenue. The board approved two proposals offered by Crawley-Sheppard Construction Co. to grade and sod the two fields. The areas surrounding the fields are to be then graded with black dirt only. The sod will cover 20,000 square feet of the 42,250 sq. ft. area. The sodding will be completed by Oct. 20. The board refused the first proposal of sodding the entire area for $79,000.

The board also noted that a position was open on the board for any interested citizen. The seat, vacated by John F. Euska for business reasons, will be filled in 30 days. The board will interview interested citizens at the Administration Center, 15201 Crawford Ave. If the position is not filled within 30 days, it will be filled in the April elections.

AGREEMENT FOR THE PURCHASE OF A FIRE STATION IN AND FOR THE VILLAGE OF OAK FOREST, COOK COUNTY, ILLINOIS

THIS AGREEMENT, made this first day of January, 1973, by and between Polonia Construction Company (hereinafter called "Seller"), and the Village of Oak Forest, a municipal corporation of the State of Illinois (hereinafter called "Buyer");

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, the Mayor and Board of Trustees of the Village of Oak Forest, Cook County, Illinois, has determined that it is essential and in the public interest, and necessary for the public safety that a new fire station, constructed on the site hereinafter described, be acquired and owned by said Village; and

WHEREAS, Division 76.1 of Article 11 of the Illinois Municipal Code, as amended, authorizes the Village to purchase real estate and personal property for public purposes pursuant to contracts which provide for the consideration for such purchase to be paid in annual installments during a period not exceeding twenty (20) years, and to provide for the levy and collection of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the annual installments when same become due and payable; and

WHEREAS, The Seller has agreed to construct on the site hereinafter described a new fire station in accordance with plans and specifications provided by the Village, and to provide the necessary funds therefor, and sell said building to the Village on an installment basis as hereinafter provided:

being the westerly portion of a five acre tract of land now owned by the Village of Oak Forest and located at the northwest corner of the intersection of 155th Street and Central Avenue in Oak Forest, Illinois, in accordance with plans and specifications prepared by DeLew Cather & Co., Chicago, Illinois, dated June 23, 1972, identified as Job No. 2164-00, which said plans and specifications are made a part hereof by reference, the same as if set out in full herein.

2. Seller agrees to sell said fire station to Buyer and Buyer agrees to purchase said fire station from Seller for the sum of Six Hundred Twenty-Four Thousand Four Hundred Eighty-three Dollars and Thirty-seven Cents ($624,483.37), which price includes interest at the rate of five per cent (5 per cent) on a principal amount of Four Hundred Thousand Dollars ($400,000) remaining unpaid from time to time, said purchase price to be payable in the following manner:

day of any month to prepay any one or more installments of the principal amount of the purchase price, without penalty or premium, by paying said installment or installments plus the interest accrued to said prepayment date on the principal amount then unpaid. Fifteen (15) days written notice must be given by Buyer to the Seller if option to make such prepayment is to be exercised.

3. Buyer hereby gives and grants to Seller (including, without limitation, all agents and representatives of Seller and all contractors, subcontractors, materialmen and laborers employed in connection with or furnishing materials for the construction of said building) all rights of ingress and egress to the real estate described above, together with all rights of possession thereof, incident, necessary, or required, to enable Seller to construct the fire station on said real estate pursuant to the terms and provisions of this agreement.

4. Upon completion of the construction of the fire station, Seller agrees to convey to Buyer good title thereto by good and sufficient bill of sale, and title shall thereupon vest in Buyer.

5. Buyer agrees, upon the execution of this agreement prior to the delivery of title by Seller, that it will file a certified copy of the ordinance providing for the levy of a direct annual tax sufficient to pay the aforesaid installments as they become due with the County Clerk of Cook County, Illinois, all in accordance with the provisions and requirements of Division 76.1 of Article 11 of the Illinois Municipal Code, as amended.

6. At or prior to the time of delivery of title to said fire station, Seller shall deliver to Buyer all necessary contractors' and subcontractors' affidavits and all necessary waivers and releases from all persons who have performed work and labor on or in connection with, furnished services in connection with, or supplied equipment, materials or supplies to or in connection with the construction of said fire station, together with a report of Chicago Title and Trust Company to evidence that the owners title policy will be extended to assure that no mechanics' lien claims shall be claimed or filed against the fire station referred to in paragraph 1.

7. Seller agrees to designate such person, firm or corporation mutually acceptable to Seller and Buyer to act as Supervising Architect for the construction of said fire station for and on behalf of Seller. The Supervising Architect shall generally oversee the construction of said building and shall perform the duties and execute the certificates and other papers provided to be performed or executed by the Supervising Architect as in this agreement provided.

8. The certificate of the Supervising Architect, addressed to Seller and Buyer, certifying that the construction of the fire station referred to in paragraph 1 has been completed in accordance with said plans and specifications hereinabove referred to in paragraph 1, shall be binding on said parties for all purposes of this agreement.

9. It is understood and agreed by and between the parties hereto that the payments required under the terms of this agreement shall be a general obligation of Buyer, and that the total amount due Seller, together with all other general obligations of Buyer, are within the statutory and constitutional debt limitations.

10. Seller shall have the right at any time or from time to time to assign this agreement, representing the purchase price then remaining unpaid and the interest then or thereafter payable, as herein provided. Written notice of any such assignment shall be given by Seller to Buyer in the same manner as provided in Section 11 hereof for giving of notices. Buyer may rely and shall be protected in acting upon any instrument of assignment or notice thereof believed by it to be genuine, and shall have no duty to inquire into the authority for or the validity or effectiveness of any such assignment.
